

Taking care of your dead with respect

For most of us this care is done in a Funeral parlor
Are there other options?

This workshop is an invitation to re possess this moment.
We will be pondering these questions:

- what are truly our legal rights
- what are our fears
- how do you really prepare the body for a wake at home
- what are all the green options out there
- how can we continue to prepare ourselves alone & with others

Diane Huguelle Beauséjour and Blondine Maurice will be your guides in this exploration. They were trained by Beth Knox (inspired by Rudolf Steiner) from www.crossings.net
